

Diploma of Child, Youth and Family Intervention

CHC50321

SAL Consulting (RTO Code 91494) are offering the brand new Diploma program to anyone who currently works in the human services sector across Australia.

The course focuses on people who support families and children in their roles. This can include:

- Out-of-home care
- Permanency Support Programs
- Early intervention
- Intensive family-based services
- Schools
- Youth work and youth justice
- Homelessness
- Family violence
- Child protection

Our Diploma incorporates Neurodevelopment, Attachment and Trauma Informed (NATI) principles and offers a unique approach to your work. These principles are embedded across all of the modules to enhance the core content and enabling you to work from a therapeutic approach.

SAL Consulting has been providing support to people and organisations for 18 years. Our delivery is unpinning by the latest research, best-practice models and a hands-on approach.

SAL Consulting is accredited by the Child Trauma Academy to deliver the Neurosequential Model of Therapeutics and are members of the Neuroleadership Institute.

This is a self-paced course – you can enrol any time you are ready!

“Great trainer
– approachable – linking theory and practice effectively.”

“The program was very engaging and informative.”

Course details:

- There are no formal entry requirements to this program. Ideally you should be working in an appropriate industry or have access to one in order to complete the workplace hours.
- The Diploma runs for approximately 18 months.
- The program is an online program. It is self-paced, you will work through each module with the support of your individual assessor. Regular tutorials and check-in sessions will be scheduled throughout the program.
- The program fee is $6,500. Regular payments will be scheduled throughout your progress. We will never ask you pay everything up front.
- We are very happy to offer recognition of prior learning and/or credit transfer to learners based on your previous knowledge and experience. Please check in with us for more details if you're interested.
- We have a fantastic and committed student support team – they can help you with any aspect of your enrolment and course progression. They can also assist you if you have any learning or physical difficulties that may have an impact of your learning.

“All together great.”

“The trainer’s practical experience in the field is evident and provides validity to the context being taught.”

Would you like more information on this program?

Please email us at rto@salconsulting.com.au or phone 0439 203 615

SAL Consulting RTO Code 91494

The following modules and units form part of the Diploma program:

Module One – Trauma and attachment

CHCPRT034 Work with children and young people with complex trauma and attachment issues and needs

CHCMHS007 Work effectively in trauma informed care

Module Two – Risk minimisation

CHCPRT028 Work effectively in child protection to support children, young people and families

CHCDFV001 Recognise and respond appropriately to domestic and family violence

HLTWHS003 Maintain work health and safety

Module Three – Professional development and practice

CHCPRP003 Reflect on and improve own professional practice

CHCPRT030 Build professional practice and sectoral expertise

CHCMGT005 Facilitate workplace debriefing and support processes

Module Four – Responding to your client

CHCCCS004 Assess co- existing needs

CHCCCS016 Respond to client needs

CHCDEV006 Analyse client information for service planning and delivery

Module Five - Case management

CHCCSM013 Facilitate and review case management

Module Six – Cultural intelligence

CHCDIV001 Work with diverse people

CHCDIV002 Promote Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander cultural safety

Module Seven – Complex family issues

CHCAOD001 Work in an alcohol and other drugs context

CHCMHS001 Work with people with mental health issues

Module Eight – Therapeutic group skills

CHCFAM003 Support people to improve relationships

CHCGRP002 Plan and conduct group activities

